

Welcome to

BINSEY

a hamlet on the River Thames in the Oxfordshire countryside of England. Home to two evacuated sisters, a young boy and a story-spinning mother.

Hazel

Antiquarian Bookseller, big sister to the lost Flora Lea, and the imaginative creator of Whisperwood.

*“Her heart always scanning for something that might point
the way to Flora Lea.”*

Flora Lea

Often called The River Child, lost at six years old near the River Thames, and the little sister of Whisperwood creator, Hazel.

“I feel like I can turn into anything I want!”

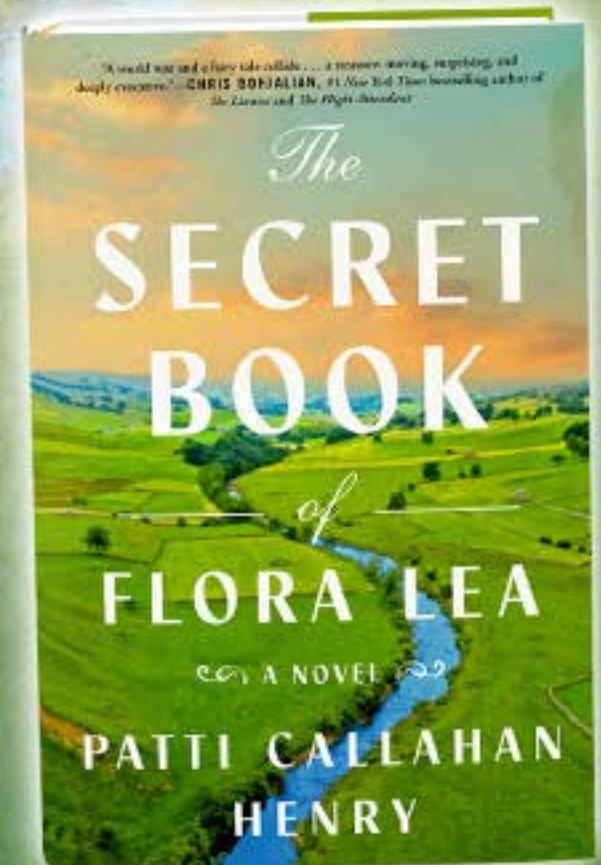

Bridie

Story-spinner and protector, the caring and creative mother who chose Hazel and Flora to live with her in the countryside of Binsey.

"Stories are soul-making."

Harry

Once the adventuresome friend and house-mate of Hazel and Flora's Binsey childhood, and now an artist in St. Ives.

"We make art from our broken hearts."

Peggy

The American author and writer of the fairy tale book that appeared in Hazel's London Book Shop, setting into motion the journey of a lifetime.

*“She wrote adventures.
Could she have one?”*

Welcome to

WHISPERWOOD

Welcome to Whisperwood:
the magical land created by Hazel Linden for her lost sister, Flora Lea.

“Not very long ago and not very far away there once was and still is an invisible place.”

